

FORTY-FIFTH REUNION

Susan Martin

So Grovers, let's get together for the greatest rally, ever, our Forty-fifth Reunion. See you the weekend of June 3.

Yours always,

I READ THE LETTER, STUFFED IT BACK in the envelope filled with information about the reunion and tossed it in the wastepaper basket. Forty-five years after graduation, Pine Grove College was more than a memory. It was an embarrassment I would rather forget.

How right it had seemed back then. I had applied there, and to other schools just like it, because my family told me that was what I wanted. They said I was
