

JAILHOUSE MAIL

Bill Collins

JEANETTE SENT ME A LETTER FROM JAIL back in May of '75, where she was doing nine months on a plea bargain for sale of heroin. In her letter my big sis, five years older than me, touched on many topics I wish I would've been able to address at that time, but I was just 17—with all the know-it-allness that comes with that age—and was not able to respond effectively in the way she needed me to.

As a matter of fact, I never responded at all....

Bill,

Hey Dude what's up? Long time no see, eh? Heard you've been really busy with school and working. I'll bet you still find time to throw in some partying though ☺ I'm glad
